19:40 Prepared Speech Session

PS1 ----- TM Brian

As usual, he made a nice philosophical tasted, and precious lesson type speech which was very useful for ordinary people like us. One his teaching, for example, success is not necessarily materialistic, rather spiritual, merciful feeling, having compassion, caring, and giving. Mother Teresa was one of typical examples as she was the happiest person in the world and most successful in earning the world fame. He did a good job!

Free style speech

Title: "SUCCESS AND SOME COPING FACTORS"

Time: 5-7 minutes±.30sec

PS2 ----- TM Takamiya

He made a speech on the global warming and explained about COP27 and its outstanding issues and problems. He suggested to support people in developing countries for their recovery from damages and losses caused by the climate change. He implied it was one of most urgent and important issues we have face today.

Pathways: Engaging Humor: Level 1: Project: Researching and Presenting

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to learn or review basic research methods and present a well-organized, well-researched speech on any topic.

Title: "What is COP 27?"

Time: 5-7 minutes±.30sec

PS3----- TM Tamada

As a guest speaker from the sister club, she made very interesting speech on the benefits of inconvenience. She explained by showing an unique bamboo ruler about paradoxically unrealistic matters into realistic matter. She emphasized importance of perception of inconvenience, then turn into positive and convenience. To make her story short, she emphasized inconvenience are actually source of convenience. In other words, inconvenience is the mother of invention or discovery of new convenience. Paradoxically, if there is no inconvenience in our life, there would have been no advance and no progress at all.....it was very humorously beneficial speech?!! We all enjoyed it!
